The Tristi McMaster Robinson Memorial Scholarship will be awarded to the graduating High School senior or college student whose desire is to not only dream of being a professional dancer, but who is determined and courageous enough to put themselves out there and to do what it takes to make the dream a reality. Who knows that, while maintaining discipline, it may take many auditions, much travel, and rejections. She pursued a professional dance career immediately after graduating high school. She knew "firsthand" what it was like, and now we want to do what we can to help someone who has the same goal and determination. Persons must apply for the scholarship and must have at least a 3.3gpa.
